FISH AND FLOWERS GO QUIETLY

OFFICE OF PITTSBURG DISPATCH, FRIDAY, July 12, 1889. At the Diamond market fruit and vegetable stalls reports were that everything in season is in over-supply and prices lower than at any time this season. Raspberries and blackberries, new apples and potatoes are abundant and at their lowest point. Black currants are coming in freely and are cheaper than they bave been for a number cheaper than they have been for a number of scasons. There is a decided improvement of late in quality of egg plant, and those selling at 25c are cheaper than what we have been having for a few weeks past at 10c to 15c, assize and quality have so much improved. A very delicious hot house grape is on the stalls at $1 per pound. Of these there are three different varieties, namely, black Hamburg, white Muscat and Chaseles. Pittsburgers have por yet caught on to summer grapes not yet caught on to summer grapes which in other large cities of the land sell readily at loc per pound. The commercial editor of THE DISPATCH was permitted to sample a bunch at a Diamond market stall, and can tesbusch at a Diamond market stall, and can testify that he never tasted better.

The first home-grown tomatoes of the season put in their appearance this week. Southern tomatoes are slow, and quality is not the best. Butter and eggs are practically unchanged from prices of last Saturday. Country butter was never plentier at this time of year, and far more is offered than the wants of trade demand. A leading jobber says he has no trouble getting all the country butter he wants of a good quality at 10c per pound. Spring chickens are coming to market in good quantity and shape at prices much lower than a week ago. A reasonably ripe pair ought to be had at 50c to 60c.

A reasonably ripe pair ought to be had at 50c to 60c.

Florists report quietness all along the line. Home gardens are now at their best, and seasonable showers have brought these gardens to an unusual state of perfection. Society events have been slow the past week, and demands on florists are now at their lowest ebb. In the next week or two orders from mountain and seasbore will be coming in. At present the trade in floral lines is at its quietest. Products of lake and ocean are in the same boat as those of garden and conservatory. The restaurant demand for fish always slackens up at this time of the year, as patrons are seeking cool retreats where mountain or ocean breezes blow. Lake fish are scarcely in supply up to demand, but ocean fish is plenty enough, and trade is quiet. Following are latest retail prices of Saturday's market basket material as furnished by leadying dealers:

Wheat More Active on the Speculative Account-July Higher, but All the Later Options Lose Ground - Bearlab News From the Old World.

CHICAGO—In the aggregate a good speculative business was transacted in wheat to-day. The opening was weak and prices declined $\frac{\phi}{\phi}\text{lc}$ for the various deliveries below the closing figures of yesterday/then reacted, advancing %@lc, ruled easy and closed 1/2 higher for July, 1/2 lower for August, 1/2 lower for September and 1/2c lower for December than the closing of yesterday. The early decline was a continuation of the weakness developed yester day, more or less long wheat again coming on the market, and for a while there was not much demand. But later the market began to rule steadier under a better demand, and a recovery of part of the decline resulted. One reason assigned for the advance was that private caules represented the Russian crop worse than had been heretofore mentioned; worse than had been heretofore mentioned; that the damage had been greater than reported. Reports also state that the Hungary-Austrian crop of wheat was damaged considerably by the drought and hot weather, and that the acreage was smaller than last year. Liverpool was quiet. No. 2 red was quoted a triffe higher, but California and India wheat was lower. However, the advance noted would probably have occurred anyway, as a natural reaction might be expected after the break of the last two days. It was probably more to a disposition on the part of shorts to cover, and a little more inquiry from other sources to buy, that the temporary reaction was attributed. Only a moderate business was transacted in corn. Fluctuations covered a narrow range, and most of the trading was confined to local operators. The feeling on the whole was a little firmer, though prices did not show material change from yesterday's closing quotations.

in oats trading was large, especially during the early part of the day and a lower range of prices was recorded. Declines were not so great as on yesterday and the range of prices carrower.
Considerable interest was manifested for mess pork. Opening sales were made at 5@7% decline and a further reduction of 20c was submitted to. Later the feeling was steadier and prices railied 2%@5c and closed rather firm.

Rather more doing in the lard market and the feeling rather weak. Prices receded 2%@5c and the market closed steady at medium figures.

ANOTHER GOOD CHANCE FOR INVESTORS

Twenty-eight mortgages were recorded yes-terday, several of them for large amounts. One was for $20,000, one for $10,000, one for $7,000, one for $5,000 and six for $2,000 and upward. This business is absorbing a large amount of Pittsburg capital, which would otherwise go into less secure investments.

In the present condition of the local real estate market, there is no better or safer receptacle for money. The authoritative statement in THE DIS-PATCH that 1,000 shares of Pittsburg Plate Glass stock had been sold at 150, and that more of it could be had at the same price, caused considerable talk among brokers on 'Change yesterday, where it was offered at 185; but it is in small lots, and there is said to be an under-standing among several brokers who handle the most of it by which Exchange quotations are kept up. A bidder is rarely confronted by a seller. This makes it safe to offer almost any The statement that dividends amounting to 17 per cent have been paid this year, is correct enough, but it should be added for the information of the public that they were not en-tirely out of the earnings of this year, but include those of the last quarter of 1888. The plant is mortgaged for $950,000, or nearly half its value, and the probability is that until this indebtedness is wiped out, dividends will be few and far between. Under these conditions 150 or thereabouts seems to be a pretty good

It was she who prevented the nomina-tion of Daniel Webster for the Presidency in 1848. Next to Margaret Fuller, she was the greatest woman that America has produced. The works of the Switch and Signal Company, one of Mr. George Westinghouse's great enter-prises, are located at Swissvale.

The Poltery and Glassware Reporter of the current week says: "By the end of the present month it is generally expected that the crockery and glassware business will begin to assume a degree of activity not experienced for months. Many indications point to a good fall trade and, while it is always possible that an opposite condition of things may prove the reality, few dealers anticipate dull or unprofitable times in August, September and October. Reliable accounts from all directions describe retailers throughout the country as having little earthenware or glassware on hand. ing little earthenware or glassware on hand. There must therefore exist among dealers a need for this line of goods, and the only cirneed for this line of goods, and the only cir-cumstance that can occur to prevent traders from ordering liberal supplies fi a lack of money or its equivalent. But the agricultural prospects are reported as favorable, and if the farmers should be fortunate enough to gather in a good harvest there will be resources enough at the command of country dealers to instife them in making large supplies. justify them in making large purchases."

Philadelphia and Electric Weak.

There was nothing done at the morning stock call yesterday except placing figures upon the blackboard. For Pittsburg Plate Glass 185 was bid, in spite of the fact that President Ford is offering it at 150. But it is safe to bid high when the bidder knows that the stuff will not be forthcoming. That is the regulation way to boom stocks. That there is an understanding to this effect among holders of Plate Glass is pretty generally believed. The whole trouble hinges upon a war of factions, one trying to depress and the other to sustain the stock.

The Westinghouse consolidation had the immediate effect to weaken the stock, which was offered at 51½, with 49 bid. There was no other particular change in quotations, but the feeling was rather bearish.

There were five sales in the afternoon, amounting to 200 shares, of which Philadelphia Gas contributed 175 and Electric 25. The former sold down to 30½ and the latter to 49½. Both were freely offered. The rest of the list was featureless as well as neglected. Bids. offers and sales were:

STILL IN THE SOUP. Oil Opens a Little Bullish, but Loses Its

Workmen are erecting scaffolding around the Baltimore and Ohio building, corner of Fifth avenue and Wood street, preparatory to a general overhauling of the premises, in accordance with the decision of the Board of Arbitrators last spring. Inspector Frank had condemned the building and ordered its demolition, but the arbitrators, after thorough inspection, came to the conclusion that it could be repaired so as to make it perfectly safe. The scaffolding will probably be finished to-day, and work on the interior commenced early next week.

The repairs will be extensive and thorough. All of the old timbers will be removed and new ones substituted. New floors will be laid and parts of the old walls rebuilt. They will be ornamented with large and handsome cornices. The entire building will then be painted in the prevailing style. These improvements will cost about $4,000, and will transform the dingy oid place into a thing of beauty. The work is to be completed in 60 days.

From the National Transit Company's Works, at Oil City, was recently shipped the third of their largest sized oil pumps to the Ohio field. This one went to Green Springs, a station on the line between Cygnet and Coal Grove, to be used in pumping fuel oil to Baltimore, Philadelphia and other Eastern points. It is a triple expansion duplex, the steam cylinder being 20,320 and 52 inches, with a $foot stroke, while the oil plunger is 10 inches. The pump weighs 85 tons, and is intended to work against a pressure of 800 pounds to the square inch. Its capacity is 10,000 barrels of oil per day, the largest ever manufactured.

NEW YORK, July 12—The temper of the stock market underwent a sudden change to-day from buoyancy to depression, and the result of the operations is to leave everything lower than last evening, and even to wipe out all the gains of yesterday with something to spare. The advices in regard to the action of Inter-State Association were regarded as favorable, and the foreign houses were buyers of stocks in this market at the opening this morning, while London prices were materially higher than our figures of last evening. The market started off well, but quickly, struck a snag, and a marked decline was inaugurated over the entire list. The sudden change began with Lead Trust, and it appears that while there has really been no increase in the outstanding certificates of the trust the amount is actually $83,000,000, as stated yesterday, and the surprise over the announcement led to free sales for both sides of the account.

Holders of lead trusts became demoralized and they were thrown over rapidly, over 76,000 shares changing hands in the first hour of business. The price quickly dropped from $3%c last evening to 26%c, and afterward got down to 25%c at the close. The demoralization spread to the other trusts later in the day, and sugar dropped from $1.16% to $1.08%, though it rallied slightly from the lowest figure, and cotton oil broke from $6 to 53%c. The weakness soon spread to the regular list, the impelling cause being the announcement that the Grand Trunk had reduced grain rates from Chicago, and this did away for the time with all the good effects of the recent advices from the Trunk line Association and the inter-State meeting.

The Grangers were leaders in the decline and St Paul Atchiese Wissensipped to the start of the recent advices from the Grangers were leaders in the decline and St Paul Atchiese Wissensipped to the start of the recent advices from the Grangers were leaders in the decline and all the good effects of the recent advices from the Trunk Line Association and the inter-State meeting.

The Grangers were leaders in the decline and St. Paul, Atchison, Missouri Pacific and others rapidly declined and the losses in the regular list ranged up to 3 per cent. To add to the general demoralization a million and a half of gold was ordered for export by to-morrow's steamers, and the banks raised the rates for loans on the trust stocks. The liquidations in all departments of the list were very large to-day, but there were heavy sales for the short account and both bear and bull brokers were conspicuous sellers all day long. The first sales were made for Chicago account on the action of the Grand Truck and the Granger stock jumped immediately into the lead both in point of activity and weakness. The decline met with no setback of importance though there were periods of comparative dullness when the selling was suspended and prices halted in the downward path. The close, however, was fairly active and decidedly weak at the lowest prices of the day.

The most important declines were: Lead % Sugar 5%. St. Paul preferred 3, the common 24, Cotton Oil 34, Missouri Pacific 29, Chesapeake and Ohio preferred 24. New England 2, Burlington 1% Chicago Gas 134. Northwestern 134, Atchison 2, Union Pacific and Lake Shore 134, Jersey Central, Canada Southern and Louisville and Nashville 134. Railroad bonds did not respond to the excitement in shares, either to show more business or more important movements, but on the contrary were dull all the way out, all issues aggregating only $892,000, with no special feature in the list. The advances include Chicago, St. Paul and Minneapolis firsts, 1 to 1102%, and illinois and South Iowa receipts, 134 to 1023%. The declines were: Houston and Texas second receipts, 1 at 120, and Ohio River firsts 2 at 100.
